

*Imagine a luminous half-mile crescent beach of soft white sand caressed by sapphire waters. An enchanting landscape where lush mountaintops tower above rock cathedrals carved over eons of time.
Within the secluded, sun-kissed splendor of Virgin Gorda, lies the British Virgin Islands' most exclusive resort – Rosewood Little Dix Bay.*

Natural Harmony

Established in 1964 by Laurance Rockefeller, the resort remains true to its founder's vision of natural harmony while offering an escape from the ordinary. The resort's accommodations are nestled amid lush gardens and shaded footpaths that curve through verdant lawns just a stone's throw from the beach. Superb cuisine is served amidst dramatic backdrops of sand, sea and sky. In this sophisticated playground, guests enjoy an array of leisure pursuits, exceptional service and privacy.
