

Wine and dine, sip and swirl at the ritzy Rosewood Sand Hill

Too much of a good thing is wonderful!– Mae West. The good life is about living large.

It's enough to make a Diva flush with joy, a delightfully decadent sounding deal at the impossibly romantic Rosewood San Hill in Menlo Park—an area positioned between San Francisco and the Silicon Valley that's an easy, scenic drive from Los Angeles.

Set in a backdrop of the gorgeous Santa Cruz Mountains, on 16 acres of well-groomed land, the 121-room hotel has everything under one roof from a full speed ahead Business Center to the super Sense® spa with 13 pampering rooms designed for ultimate indulgence.

There's also the upmarket Alex Chases Salon, a spa boutique, fitness center & motion studio, heated outdoor pool, and nearby golf courses, horseback riding, and cycling trails. Bring your kids or pets and enroll them in the Rose Buds® for Children and Pampered Pet Program, and leave them in able-bodied hands while you're behaving like an adult.

So here's the deal that perked up the Diva's ears. It's called Rosewood Sand Hill's Swirl, Sip and Pair Package for Two—a food and wine-centric escape with meals created by the culinary staff at the hotel's Michelin-starred restaurant. . Developed in partnership with several wineries best described as “hidden gems” located throughout the neighboring Santa Cruz Mountains Swirl, Sip and Taste Package for Two includes: a chauffeured drive through California redwoods to an exclusive VIP tasting at select boutique Santa Cruz Mountain wineries such as Ridge Winery. A bespoke four-course dinner for two prepared by Chef Peter Rudolph at Madera Restaurant with wine pairings for each course—with narration about the wineries, varietals and vintages experienced throughout the day presented by Wine Director Paul Mekis

Package rates start at $775 per night and require a two-night minimum stay with a five-day advance notice. Reservations can be made by calling 650-561-1515 or visiting www.rosewoodsandhill.com.

The hotel was ranked number 3 out of 8 in the Menlo Park area by www.tripadvisor.com--with most of reviews describing it as the quintessential luxury experience, best hotel in the Bay area, and more than expected.”

Rosewood San Hills, 2825 Sand Hill Road, Menlo Park, California, 888-ROSEWOOD.