

ROSEWOOD

PATRICK GRAHAM MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD BERMUDA

Patrick Graham joined Rosewood Hotels & Resorts in 2022, most recently serving as Hotel Manager at Rosewood London, where he led operations at one of the brand's flagship European properties. He has also held key pre-opening and interim leadership positions at Rosewood Munich and Rosewood Schloss Fuschl, where he served as Opening Ambassador and Acting Managing Director. His ability to lead high-performing teams through critical phases of hotel development and brand integration has made him a trusted asset across Rosewood's global portfolio.

"As we look to the future for Rosewood Bermuda, our vision is not only to deliver exceptional guest experiences, but to lead with purpose, deepening our ties to community and culture," states Patrick Graham, Managing Director at Rosewood Bermuda. "Our Juniper Initiative was launched in 2024 to support education, sustainability, and inclusivity across the island, its habitat and its people. This powerful platform allows us to work side by side with local philanthropic organizations, and I'm committed to evolving the program in my new role to further resonate with today's conscious traveller."

Throughout his career, Graham has held senior roles at some of the most respected luxury hotels in London, including Claridge's, The Bulgari Hotel & Residences and Nobu Hotel London Portman Square. Known for his ability to balance operational precision with genuine hospitality, Graham has consistently delivered elevated guest experiences while fostering long-term relationships with stakeholders and team members alike.