Château Talbot

4th Growth in Saint-Julien

The Château was classified as a Fourth Growth in the 1855 Classification of Médoc wines. It is known for producing elegant and well-structured wines that often exhibit dark fruit flavors, earthynotes, and a balanced acidity.

Château Talbot, Connétable de Talbot, Saint-Julien 2006

Second wine from the Château and firstly introduced in 1970s, Connétable de Talbot is a classic and elegant wine, marked by a clear and well-defined structure, with a long fresh finish.

Discover the Refreshing Allure of Riesling

Riesling No.44, RIESLINGFREAK, Eden Valley, Australia 2021

Eden Valley Rieslings often showcase delicacy and refinement. Rieslingfreak No.44 typically demonstrates this, with aromas of citrus, talcum powder and white blossom, and flavours of lime and lemon, with a background of sweet spice.
