

ROSEWOOD

HUSSEIN DAYEKH MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD JEDDAH

Hussein Dayekh is the Managing Director of Rosewood Jeddah, a leading luxury hotel on Jeddah's Corniche. With extensive hospitality experience, he is known for driving operational excellence, delivering exceptional guest experience, and building empowered, high-performing teams.

Hussein's approach is rooted in the true economics of hospitality—balancing revenue across rooms, F&B, retail, and guest experience, monitoring key KPIs, and implementing cost controls without compromising service. Believing that luxury is emotion, lifestyle, and mindset, he leverages technology, data, and guest profiling to create meaningful, personalized experiences. He emphasizes emotional intelligence in staff–guest interactions, fostering authentic connections that enhance every stay.

A visionary leader, Hussein champions positive, entrepreneurial cultures, empowers teams, encourages innovation, and prioritizes sustainability and social impact through Rosewood Hotel Group initiatives.

He stays at the forefront of evolving guest demographics, including Gen Z, while expertly balancing operators, owners, and guests to create exceptional, memorable spaces.

Under his leadership, Rosewood Jeddah continues to thrive as a landmark of luxury, innovation, and sustainability, setting the standard for hospitality excellence in Saudi Arabia.