DANIEL SCOTT

MANAGING DIRECTOR, KONA VILLAGE, A ROSEWOOD RESORT

Daniel Scott serves as Managing Director of Kona Village, A Rosewood Resort, the iconic hideaway rooted in joy. At Kona Village, Daniel oversees every aspect of the resort's experience from its world-class dining and Asaya Spa wellness offerings to immersive cultural programs that honor Hawai'i Island's unique heritage. In this role, he ensures that Kona Village continues to embody Rosewood's ethos of discovery, creating experiences that are deeply rooted in the local culture and landscape.

Additionally, he holds the position of Regional Vice President for Rosewood in North America and the Caribbean, providing operational leadership across The Carlyle, A Rosewood Hotel, Rosewood Washington, D.C., and Rosewood Baha Mar, guiding these iconic properties to deliver unparalleled service and distinctive experiences.

Since joining Rosewood in 2003, Daniel has held key roles including overseeing the re-openings of Rosewood Little Dix Bay and Le Guanahani, as well as operational management of Rosewood Bermuda. His tenure as Managing Director of Rosewood Mayakoba (2014–2024) established the resort as one of Mexico's premier luxury destinations. Beyond his professional accomplishments, Daniel co-founded Centro Educativo Kūin Beh in 2015, a bilingual non-profit school for underserved communities in Playa del Carmen. As President, he has nurtured the growth of over 450 children from kindergarten through high school, fostering strong values and cultivating future community leaders.
