

THE SOUL OF SOUTHERN BAJA

LOS CABOS

LAS VENTANAS

• AL PARAISO •

A ROSEWOOD RESORT

A TY WARNER PROPERTY

The majesty of sculptural cacti. The call of the gallito marino. The whisper of sea breezes through a hidden courtyard. These are the first notes of a Los Cabos lifestyle, lived through celebratory rituals and culturally rich experiences at Las Ventanas al Paraíso, A Rosewood Resort.

Here, the soul of Southern Baja is revealed where desert stillness meets sea, and guests find space to breathe. Every moment flows gracefully between open-air beauty and private sanctuary. A place of coastal serenity that invites connection to self, to others and to the rhythms of a sun-kissed escape.

Sunrise yoga, stargazing, horseback rides across the sands. The call of a conch shell echoes softly, signaling the arrival of migrating whales. Pebble stone pathways lead the way, adorned with vibrant cascades of bougainvillea spilling from rooftops, creating a masterpiece of living color. Local artists inspire new perspectives in spaces filled with handmade craft.

By sun or by star, Los Cabos dining becomes a space for shared time and personal tales. Ceviche kissed with sea salt. Mezcal poured to the sound of live music. Seasonal ingredients from local farm and water, prepared with reverence. Every table tells its own story of Southern Baja.

Memories of Mexico linger long after the last sunset at Las Ventanas al Paraíso, A Rosewood Resort.
