

THE IDYLLIC COASTAL HIDEAWAY

LE GUANAHANI ST. BARTH

ROSEWOOD

LE GUANAHANI

Rosewood Le Guanahani St. Barth is both land and feeling. A stay decorated in bougainvillea blooms, turquoise waters and swaying coconut palms. One of warmth and joie de vivre—its name meaning 'welcome' in the native Arawak language.

The idyllic coastal hideaway sits within the breathtaking beauty and understated elegance of St. Barth. A private peninsula on the quiet side of the island, hugged by Marigot Bay, the Grand Cul-de-Sac and Le Morne. Arrive by propeller plane over stunning views onto an iconic runway and be welcomed to a world of barefoot freedom.

Here, cuisine is where Mediterranean sensibility and Caribbean conviviality come together. Menus that unite the island's bounty and French influence—its sun-kissed flavors enjoyed by beach, lagoon or at a table lit by twilight.

Nature guides a return to well-being. Oceanfront yoga, trail walks, swimming with sea turtles and treatments combining local botanicals and ancestral traditions. From sipping on a chilled kombucha by the pool to quiet reflection with a journal, time is well spent. A retreat shaped by generosity, creativity and connection—where the island of St. Barth is both setting and trusted host.
