

THE SECLUDED CARIBBEAN RETREAT

LITTLE DIX BAY

ROSEWOOD

The secluded Caribbean retreat, a jewel of paradise in complete harmony with nature. Sheltered by green mountain peaks and framed by a crescent-shaped bay, Rosewood Little Dix Bay is a coastal escape of peaceful seclusion in the British Virgin Islands.

Time here is spent in communion with sea, land and sky. Morning hikes to panoramic lookouts, afternoons beneath a sun shelter by the bay or swim among turtles in the reef's calm shallows. Come evening, gather fireside at the farm for island stories passed down through generations.

Nature is both muse and source of seasonal cuisine. Fresh catches arrive by boat—wahoo, mahi, tuna—prepared with reverence for the ocean. Wines aged just offshore are a sip of the surroundings. Venture to a beach where a private picnic turns the shoreline into a dining room. Intimate, open-air and unhurried.

At Rosewood Little Dix Bay, every detail fosters reconnection to self, to each other and to the natural world.
