As a Pastry Chef, I'm always curious and try to draw inspiration from things that surround me.

London is a vibrant city with an incredibly energetic art scene. Rosewood London's quirky interiors reflect the British capital's history, culture and sensibilities, featuring the works of some of the world's most renowned artists, with contemporary pieces complemented by more traditional art throughout the hotel.

The Pear

Inspired by the Enzo Mari's iconic pear painting adorning John Booth's wall at home, The Pear is a fusion of art and flavour, capturing the essence of festive warmth.

The cake features gingerbread paired with a salted caramel mousse, balanced by a pear jelly that brings a hint of fruitiness, all sitting atop of a crunchy speculoos biscuit.

The Bauble

The Bauble is a nostalgic, artful creation that brings Booth's vibrant colour palette to life.

Made with a chocolate sponge and orange feuilletine as well as contrasting flavours of chocolate mousse and mandarin blood orange jelly that offer a decadent and lively experience, the cake evokes the classic festive charm of vintage ornaments.

The Tree

Inspired by Booth's vibrant brushwork and colour palette, The Tree showcases a vanilla madeleine sponge and a smooth vanilla white chocolate mousse, complemented by a tangy cassis jelly.

The cake sits atop a red sablé biscuit and is adorned with a decorative chocolate tree that adds a playful, artistic touch reminiscent of Booth's joyful style.

Chef Mark Perkins and the Mirror Room team are proud to present 'Festive Art Afternoon Tea, The John Booth Collection', a new offering bringing two notable artists together, combining their separate visions for the first time.

Noted multidisciplinary London-based artist, John Booth, with work previously featured in the windows of Selfridges, and clients including Fendi and Paul Smith, has worked closely with Executive Pastry Chef Mark Perkins to create a new vision for Mirror Room's Art Afternoon Tea series.

Following spending time in John Booth's studio, Chef Mark Perkins worked with John Booth to handcraft a series of cakes created to evoke joy, using bold prints and bright colours, drawing on both their histories of craftsmanship and innovation. An entirely co-created menu as both artists swapped creative roles to allow insight into one another's processes.

John Booth's experience of work in design for fashion, installations, and ceramics has been translated into the menu, brimming with artistic expression.

Legend has it that the origins of the tea dates back to the 15th century when a servant (Genmai) accidentally dropped a few grains of stolen rice hidden up his sleeve as he was pouring tea for his master.

The incomparable taste is characterised by the mildness of the Bancha and is ideally complemented by the pleasant, slightly sweet and nutty caramel note.

As part of the prestigious Nobel Tea Chest collection curated by the London Tea Exchange, this tea was specially selected to represent Japan at the behest of His Majesty Emperor Akihito. Typically reserved only for state visits or guests at the Emperor's palace, it remains a rarity, savoured by very few. Renowned for its unparalleled taste and distinctive character, this green tea is unlike any other.

This tea was served by successive Emperors within the Forbidden Palace in Beijing (China). The tea was kept secret over generations and was seen as one of the true mysteries of ancient China. The recipe of this tea was lost for hundreds of years. London Tea Exchange spent almost two decades in research and development in unearthing the secret. Due to the historic nature of this tea London Tea Exchange only offers it to a select few families globally.

Exclusively sourced for London Tea Exchange, the production method of the Huang Ya is a closely guarded secret. Only three yellow teas survive today. Out of the three the rarest of them all is the Huang Ya Yellow Tea. Typically sweet, with notes of roasted nuts, herbs and honey.

Yellow tea is an increasingly rare variety of tea. The process of making yellow tea has an added step of encasing & sweltering giving the leaves a slightly yellow colour.

Probably one of the most unusual tea specialities in terms of production as well as character is produced almost entirely by hand in the Province of Fujian. Immediately after withering the still moist leaves are placed in an enclosed room where milk water (whey) is steamed. The steam conserves the pretty, lightly olive-green leaf and cup colour and invokes the distinct creamy scent and taste.
