TESSA GORMAN

MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD LONDON

Currently, the Managing Director of award-winning Rosewood London, Tessa Gorman brings a wealth of expertise in global luxury travel.

With nearly 20 years of experience, Tessa has had a remarkable career within the luxury hospitality sector - inclusive of roles within Aman, Bvlgari and Cheval-Blanc, among others. She has held General Manager positions most recently at One&Only Portonovi in Montenegro, as well as Bvlgari Resort Bali and Phulay Bay, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve in Thailand. Prior to this, she acted as a hospitality consultant for brands, working on property launches from an operational perspective and managing ultra-luxury villa properties.

At Rosewood London, Tessa looks after the hotel's 308 rooms and suites, 11 event spaces and 3 restaurants and bars, which include internationally recognised Scarfes Bar and Holborn Dining Room.
