

THE MODERN MANOR HOUSE

LONDON

ROSEWOOD

The modern manor house where new legacies begin. A place that blends a contemporary city escape with quintessential London grandeur.

Through an Edwardian courtyard enter a private world. An ever-evolving platform for art, culture and dining. Think commissions aligned with the capital's cultural calendar, a meeting place for emerging creatives and tastemakers and gastronomy that merges culinary mastery and artistic expression.

Here, you'll find a quintessential British pie experience reimaged for today, a bar adorned with artist Gerald Scarfe's changing caricatures, one of the largest gin collections in London and the only suite in the world with its very own postcode.

Rosewood London offers an intimate connection to craft and character. From the privacy of the manor house or the vibrant communities of London's West End, The City and beyond.
