

Rosewood London combines English heritage with contemporary sophistication in the heart of the capital. The Grade II-listed, Belle Époque building has been sensitively renovated with the feel of a stylish London residence. The five-star hotel's generously appointed guest rooms and suites are inspired by a British manor house, among which is the unique seven - bedroom Grand Manor House wing, a private wing with its own entrance and postcode. With an array of culinary experiences including the Mirror Room, Scarfes Bar, Holborn Dining Room, The Pie Room, The Gin Bar and The Terrace, Rosewood London offers some of the capital's most conversational cuisine.
