THE TEAM'S FAVOURITE PLACES in LONDON

favourite restaurant
EVELYN'S TABLE

“With its casual elegance, cosy atmosphere and personalised service, stepping into Evelyn’s Table feels like arriving in a cherished home kitchen. With just 12 counter seats, a monthly-changing five-course menu and one of the country’s best sommeliers, Honey Spencer, a delicious dining experience awaits.” – JUDITH

BRITISH MUSEUM

what not to miss
THE ROYAL PALACES

“Whether it’s the grand halls of Kensington Palace, the Tudor opulence of Hampton Court Palace, or the iconic Tower of London, the capital’s palaces tell captivating tales of the Monarchy. Journey through a millennium of history, where public dramas unfold, and the realms of scandal and secrets intertwine.” – TOBY

favourite walking route
WALKING TOUR

“Explore Bloomsbury’s literary heritage from Rosewood London to Euston. Trace the footsteps of famous English authors, uncover their inspirations and immerse yourself in the stories that shaped England’s literary landscape.” – RONAN

HAMPTON COURT PALACE

what not to miss
ALFIE'S ANTIQUE MARKET

“Nestled within the vibrant Marylebone district, Alfie’s stands as London’s grandest indoor market. Discover a treasure trove of antiques, jewellery and ceramics, then pop into this delightful area’s charming restaurants and cosy coffee shops for a well-earned rest.” – STEPHEN somewhere off the beaten track

WIMBLEDON VILLAGE

“Discover the unique charm of Wimbledon Village, a lovely blend of chic shops, cosy cafes and inviting bars. Immerse yourself in the legacy of one of the world’s most esteemed sporting events at Wimbledon Lawn Tennis Museum.” – JONATHAN

best london experience

SPEEDBOAT TOUR ALONG THE THAMES

“With a skilled skipper as your guide, unleash your inner James Bond as you race down the Thames aboard a private RIB charter. Pass under London’s iconic bridges as landmarks line the riverbank for a unique city perspective while fueling your adventurous spirit.” – NAJUM

favourite bar

GORDON'S WINE BAR

“Experience refined elegance at Gordon’s, London’s oldest wine bar, an iconic establishment that has graced the city’s landscape since 1890. Gordon’s is renowned for its vaulted candlelit cellar, where a curated collection of exquisite wines and British cheeses await.” – ISRAEL

favourite museum

LEIGHTON HOUSE, HOLLAND PARK

“Former studio-house of Victorian artist Frederic, Lord Leighton showcasing a collection of his own paintings as well as others by prominent pre-Raphaelite artists. He was very involved in the design of his home and the décor is inspired by his worldly travels. The most show stopping room is the ‘Arab Hall’ decorated with tiles and exquisite examples of Islamic art from his trips to the Middle East.” – LUCIA

favourite pub

THE TRAFALGAR TAVERN

“Popular with both locals and tourists alike, this riverside gem has been in operation since 1837, the year Queen Victoria ascended to the throne. Since then, both local fishermen as visitors have enjoyed it’s prime location on the River Thames. It’s bowed glass windows provide stunning views across the water, and you can sip your pint whilst watching boats meander up and down the river. You can eat upstairs in it’s more formal dining room, enjoy a meal in the back restaurant, or eat in the pub. It’s menu is seasonal, using local produce, and their Sunday roasts are warming after a bracing riverside walk.” – JIMMY

FAMILY ACTIVITIES

London is the perfect destination for families.
These specially-curated experiences offer something for everyone to enjoy.

DID YOU KNOW?

Great Ormond Street Hospital

Once upon a time, in a nearby land called the Great Ormond Street Hospital, dreams and magic came to life so captivatingly that Peter Pan called it home. The hospital is famous for its miraculous work in treating children – so much that Peter Pan’s creator, J.M. Barrie, would continue the legacy of “The Boy Who Wouldn’t Grow Up” as a beacon of joy and enchantment for its special little guests.

THEATRE UPGRADES

Add an extra touch of luxury to your theatre experience. Guests are greeted by a Red Coat Butler and invited into the prestigious VIP Lounge one hour before the show and during the interval. Make a toast with complimentary Champagne while children can delight in unlimited soft drinks as well as delectable ice cream and confectionery. The package also includes a show programme to share, making for a memorable family outing.
