

ROSEWOOD

SCOTT WALLEN

MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD MANSION ON TURTLE CREEK

Scott Wallen brings a wealth of experience and a deep understanding of luxury operations to Rosewood Mansion on Turtle Creek, the cherished familial estate where Rosewood's legacy first began. As Managing Director, he oversees all elements of the hotel operation, from defining the long-term strategic goals to guiding programming and the guest experience. His leadership shapes the residential charm, quiet elegance and Southern warmth that is The Mansion, empowering associates to create extraordinary results cultivating a culture of innovation.

Scott joined Rosewood Mansion on Turtle Creek in 2024 following several leadership roles across the Rosewood collection. Scott enjoyed six years at Rosewood Sand Hill as Hotel Manager and two years at Rosewood London as Director of Food and Beverage. Prior to joining the Group, Scott honed his skills as Director of Food and Beverage at Baccarat Hotel & Residences in New York City and with Capella Hotel Group in the United States and Singapore.