

ROSEWOOD

EDOUARD GROSMANGIN MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD MAYAKOBA

A visionary hotelier with a wealth of experience and proven track record of excellence, Edouard Grosmangin serves as both Managing Director of Rosewood Mayakoba and Regional Vice President for Rosewood in Mexico and South America.

At Rosewood Mayakoba, Edouard is focused on fostering excellence and synergy and continuing to drive growth at the property, a serene escape cradled by the emerald lagoons of Mexico's Riviera Maya. As Regional Vice President, he oversees the operations and strategies of Rosewood properties across the region, which include Rosewood Mayakoba; Rosewood Mandarin; Las Ventanas al Paraíso, A Rosewood Resort; Rosewood San Miguel de Allende; Rosewood São Paulo; and the forthcoming Rosewood Mexico City (2027).

Before coming to Mayakoba, Edouard served as Managing Director of Rosewood São Paulo, where he played a pivotal role in cementing the hotel's status as a global icon recognized for its innovative approach and exceptional guest experiences. The property has received numerous accolades, including Best Hotel in South America from The World's 50 Best Hotels in both 2023 and 2024.

Prior to joining Rosewood, Edouard held key leadership roles in renowned properties across Asia, the Middle East, and Europe, including General Manager positions at Raffles Seychelles, Six Senses Zil Pasyon, and Six Senses Con Dao.