THE PINNACLE OF PHNOM PENH

CAMBODIA

ROSEWOOD

The pinnacle of Phnom Penh, devoted to its community, pays homage to the capital of Cambodia's heritage and the kaleidoscopic possibilities of its creative future.

Rosewood Phnom Penh reveals sweeping panoramas of the Tonlé Sap and Mekong rivers weaving through the city, the golden spires of The Royal Palace shimmering in the distance. Here, Cambodia's cultural evolution unfolds across walls, captured in a collection of artworks blending Khmer influences with contemporary expression.

Preserving cultural heritage goes hand in hand with nurturing the future of the community. The Open Doors program trains and empowers underserved youth in surrounding regions, while partnerships with educational NGOs—including Phare Ponleu Selpak, Sala Bai, Don Bosco, and Paul Dubrule—foster opportunity and growth, ensuring your stay helps create sustainable futures through meaningful work. Menus here honor the same ethos. Ingredients sourced ethically from local farms and fishers carry the scent of the land and sea, while the culinary team embraces zero-waste principles.

The pioneering hydroponic garden—the first of its kind in Cambodia—cultivates fresh herbs and leafy greens, infusing vibrant flavor and life into every dish. Rosewood Phnom Penh is a force for good—where every stay supports the artistry, well-being and prosperity of the wider Cambodian community.
