STÉPHANE MASSARINI

MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD MATAKAURI, ROSEWOOD KAURI CLIFFS, & ROSEWOOD CAPE KIDNAPPERS

Appointed in 2024, Stéphane Massarini serves as Managing Director of Rosewood Matakauri, Rosewood Kauri Cliffs, and Rosewood Cape Kidnappers. He transitioned into this position following his tenure as Resort Manager at Rosewood Le Guanahani, St. Barth, where he served since 2021. During his time there, the resort achieved strong commercial success and ranked among the top three Rosewood properties globally in service delivery, a testament to Stéphane's commitment to excellence and his inspiring leadership. With a career spanning renowned luxury brands including St. Regis and InterContinental, Stéphane has led both operational and pre-opening efforts across diverse international markets. Notably, he was General Manager of InterContinental Beppu Resort & Spa in Japan, where he oversaw the opening of the group's first onsen resort in the country, earning widespread recognition for the property. His broad experience and proven track record in luxury hospitality position him to guide Rosewood's New Zealand properties with vision, ensuring exceptional guest experiences rooted in local culture and natural beauty.
