

THE MODERN MEXICAN HACIENDA

SAN MIGUEL DE ALLENDE

ROSEWOOD

The modern Mexican hacienda is an enchanting city sanctuary in the historic quarter of San Miguel de Allende. Central highland heritage awakens to cosmopolitan life, woven through the richness of ultra-local culture and craftsmanship.

Recognized by UNESCO for its artistic and architectural treasures, a stay in ‘The Heart of Mexico’ pulses with life—a whirl of celebration through colorful parades, markets draped in papel picado and the joyful sounds of mariachi.

That same vivacious spirit resonates throughout the escape—from quarry-stone arches and hand-carved finishes to a courtyard gallery that hosts ever-changing exhibitions. The Art Concierge invites you to private introductions to the hotel’s collection and the city’s most celebrated creative studios.

Menus here are seasoned by the land and traditions of the region. Mediterranean-inspired fare unfolds with a view at Luna Rooftop. Ancestral culinary techniques come alive at Pirules Garden Kitchen. Mexican cuisine and mezcal tastings await at 1826 Restaurant and 1826 Tequila Bar, while cooking classes begin with visits to the local farms.

Where urban charm flows without ever compromising quiet, Rosewood San Miguel de Allende is a taste of central Mexico in every sense.
