

ROSEWOOD

PHILIP MEYER

REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT & MANAGING DIRECTOR, ROSEWOOD SAND HILL

With over four decades of international experience in luxury hospitality, Philip Meyer is Managing Director of Rosewood Sand Hill, the modern clubhouse for Silicon Valley. In this role, Philip drives the strategic vision and operational excellence of the hotel. He additionally holds the position of Regional Vice President for Rosewood in North America, overseeing a portfolio of acclaimed properties across the United States and Canada including the highly anticipated Rosewood Calistoga.

Seasoned through leadership roles across the globe, including Managing Director of Rosewood Hotel Georgia, Wedgewood Hotel & Spa and Sherwood Inn & Spa, Philip is recognized as a leading force in ultra-luxury hospitality and has guided numerous hotels to Forbes Five-Star recognition. Outside of the industry, Philip is a dedicated cyclist and USA Cycling advocate, championing wellness and community engagement.