

EAGLE BAR

Set in the heart of a square once known as Little America, Eagle Bar tells the story of the golden age of Americana. An evocative setting inspired by a unique moment in time, subtly nostalgic yet reimagined through a contemporary lens.

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

FACE OF '66 20

Dreamsake Daiginjo, Noilly Prat, Fino Sherry,
Gooseberry, White Tea

In 1966, legendary hairdresser Leonard Lewis spent eight hours crafting a fresh look on a 16-year-old model named Lesley Hornby. When a fashion editor spotted the photograph in the window of his Grosvenor Street salon, the image – and the girl – captured the public imagination. Her cropped hair and waif-like frame earned her the moniker “Twiggy,” launching an era-defining career. This cocktail channels that same spirit with delicate and elegant flavours.

SPRING BREAK 22

Boatyard Gin, Axia Dry Mastiha, Basil, Fig Leaf Soda

Inspired by Proscinemi, for Kore – a striking artwork by Joe Tilson housed within the hotel – this cocktail pays homage to the myth of Persephone, the goddess of Spring. In ancient Greek lore, her journey between the underworld and earth gave rise to the seasons. Spring Break tells this story through flavour.

PRETTY IN PINK 22

Ketel One Vodka, Lychee, Jasmine, Yoghurt, Soda

This pastel-hued cocktail takes its cue from Mamie Eisenhower, America's First Lady during the post-WWII era. Her fondness for a particular shade (later dubbed “First Lady Pink”) sparked a national style movement, inspiring everything from fashion to interiors.

THREE MARTINI LUNCH 35

Seventy One Gin, Fortified Wines, Burnt Leek,
White Balsamic

A playful nod to the decadent business lunches of 1970s America, where three martinis were a standard midday affair. President Gerald Ford described it as “the epitome of American efficiency” , allowing you to get an “earful, bellyful and snootful at the same time.”

HYDE IN PLAIN SIGHT 23
Siete Misterios Doba-Yej Mezcal, Hibiscus, Cacao Nib, Chilli

With Hyde Park just beyond the western windows and winter knocking on our door, this cocktail is a nod to its summer predecessor. Hibiscus, fruits and an assortment of spices sing out in this after dinner sipper.

FOREVER YOUNG 23
Cocchi Vermouth di Torino, Oloroso, Banana, Maple Verjus, Islay Smoke

Dorian Gray, Oscar Wilde's infamous anti-hero, once lived in Grosvenor Square and traded his soul for eternal youth. This decadent sipper channels that same obsession, blending nostalgic ingredients from your childhood...maybe not the whiskey!

MIDNIGHT LACE 25
Michter's Bourbon, Quince, Brown Butter, Tonka

Named after the 1960 thriller Midnight Lace, in which Mrs. Preston is menaced by a mysterious stalker through the misty streets of Grosvenor Square. As tension mounts and her sanity is questioned, the truth finally emerges. Rich with warm, nostalgic flavours, this cocktail is a soothing antidote to frayed nerves: elegant, comforting, and quietly assured.

BEACON-52 25
Sazerac Rye, Green Coffee, Sandalwood, Chinotto

A bold homage to the golden eagle that crowns the hotel, sculpted from the shell of a B-52 bomber. This modern reimagining of the classic B-52 cocktail nods to Beacon, the celebrated art town in Upstate New York where the eagle was originally forged.

THE WINTER COLLECTION

PUMPKIN SPICE RAMOS 25

Sazerac Rye Whiskey, Pumpkin Spice, Vanilla Cream, Soda

A spirited homage to history, this autumnal twist on the iconic Ramos Gin Fizz trades gin for bold rye whiskey. Inspired by the legendary Andrew Jackson—whose fondness for New Orleans’ vibrant cocktail culture was well known—this creation captures the season’s essence while honoring a classic. Unlike its predecessor, you won’t need a dozen bartenders to shake it into perfection.

OPPOSITES ATTRACT 23

Tanqueray 10. Gin, Hepple Douglas Fir Vodka, Vetiver, Campari

On the east-facing side of the bar sits the Italian Embassy—a fitting neighbor for this Anglo-Italian love affair. This wintry twist marries Douglas Fir pine from Northumberland with earthy vetiver, conjuring the nostalgic scent of Christmas trees and alpine forests.

HARDCORE 25

Calvados, Remy Martin VSOP, Spiced Pear, Absinthe

A nod to the Battle of Normandy and one of the region’s greatest exports, Calvados. From Grosvenor Square, General Eisenhower commanded his forces for the historic D-Day offensive. This cocktail is decadent and deeply evocative, a layered tribute to heritage and history.

SWEATER WEATHER (served warm) 40

The Macallan 12YR Sherry Oak Whisky, Brown Butter, Brioche, Long Pepper

A tribute to one of America’s most iconic TV shows—Saturday Night Live. Inspired by the “Bronx Beat” sketch that made sweater weather a cultural staple, this cocktail is all about comfort and flavor. Rich and warming with layered spice and smooth depth, it’s as cozy as a cashmere sweater on a crisp winter’s night
