Romance,
Thoughtfully Curated

VALENTINE'S DAY 13th – 15th February

CELEBRATING TOGETHERNESS

This Valentine's Day, The Chancery Rosewood invites you to celebrate connection through three thoughtfully curated dining experiences and an intimate wellness journey, shaped by the pleasure of shared moments.

From the sun-washed flavours of Serra and the refined ritual of afternoon tea at Jacqueline, to the exquisite precision of Japanese cuisine at Tobi Masa and a private couples experience at Asaya Spa, expressions of romance unfold within our elegant surroundings.

Decidedly intimate, The Chancery Rosewood is defined by deeply personal relationships and a hyper-personalised approach, elevating the art of hospitality to new heights and creating moments that feel considered, meaningful and uniquely yours.

Moments Made for Sharing

From carefully considered set menus and refined à la carte selections, to curated champagne and cocktail pairings, each distinct dining experience invites you to savour the occasion your way. Enjoy welcome drinks on arrival, then let the celebrations linger through moments designed to be shared.

A Quiet Ritual for Two

10.00am - 9.00pm

FRIDAY TO SUNDAY

£1,300 PER GUEST

Retreat into the privacy of Asaya Spa's Private Couple Suite for an intimate wellness experience designed for two. Spend unhurried time together in a serene, secluded setting, beginning with a choice of any 90-minute massage for each guest, followed by one-hour of exclusive use of the Private Couples Suite, complete with a Jacuzzi. The experience is complemented by a seasonal fruit platter and your choice of two glasses of Champagne or sparkling tea, creating a moment of quiet indulgence and connection.

At Asaya Spa, well-being is approached as a personal journey of balance, restoration and renewal. Set within a calm, design-led sanctuary, bespoke treatments, expert therapists and thoughtful rituals come together to create a deeply transformative experience, inviting guests to slow down, reconnect and restore both body and mind.

Exclusively available from 13th to 15th February, each booking also includes a Valentine's gift.
