

THE HOST OF GEORGETOWN

WASHINGTON, D.C.

ROSEWOOD

Set along the historic C&O Canal in the heart of Georgetown is Rosewood Washington, D.C. – a charming city escape, a window into a notable neighborhood’s life and a cultural connection to the nation’s capital.

Behind it’s Federal-style architecture lie crafted spaces that blend seamlessly with the surrounding cobblestoned character. Here, elegance and community unite – embassies, heritage row houses, waterfront cafes, and independent bookstores.

Rosewood Washington, D.C.’s tailor-made discovery experiences highlight the depth of the city’s creative spirit. From exclusive museum partnerships to Potomac River cruises, vineyard tours and evenings at the Kennedy Center, every stay is a connection to Washington, D.C.’s past, present and future.

Culture extends within. CUT D.C. by Wolfgang Puck is where Mid-Atlantic flavors meet global technique in an atmosphere of refined conviviality. On the rooftop, CUT Above serves cocktails with panoramic views – a favored gathering place for visitors and locals alike.

Rosewood Washington, D.C. – a gracious host to the capital’s cultural life, both connected and quietly removed.

37	Rooms
12	Suites	3	Event Spaces
8	Townhouses	3	Restaurants + Bars

EXPERIENCES

A Georgetown retreat offering insider access to Washington D.C.'s creative, culinary and cultural spirit.

A Natural Extension of Georgetown's Charm

A tranquil retreat that blends seamlessly into Georgetown's historic streets, cultural life and architectural character.

Tailor-Made Destination Discovery Experiences

Enriching, tailor-made excursions to the city's most influential institutions, from monuments to museums, highlighting Washington, D.C.'s cultural depth and immersing you in the allure of the capital.

Historical Washington, D.C.

Georgetown's cobblestone streets and charming architecture are a window into early day's America.

DINING

A beloved culinary gathering spot headlining Wolfgang Puck's acclaimed gastronomic vision.

CUT D.C.

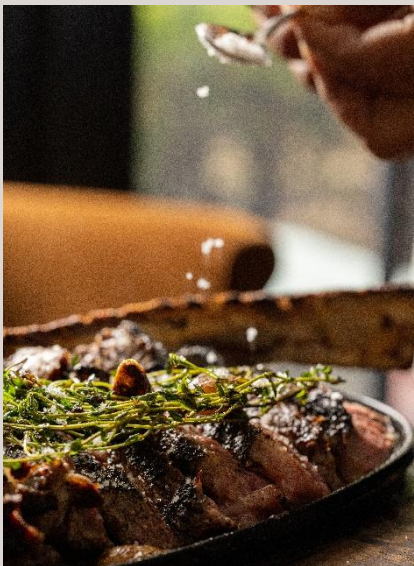

Wolfgang Puck brings his famous steak restaurant, CUT, to Washington, D.C. The most sought-after venue in the city, CUT offers sophisticated design, refined service, and a vegetable and seafood-centric menu.

CUT Bar & Lounge

From afternoon tea to mid-day lunch, exquisite fare and seasonal beverages are crafted to highlight the finest flavors of the Mid-Atlantic.

CUT Above

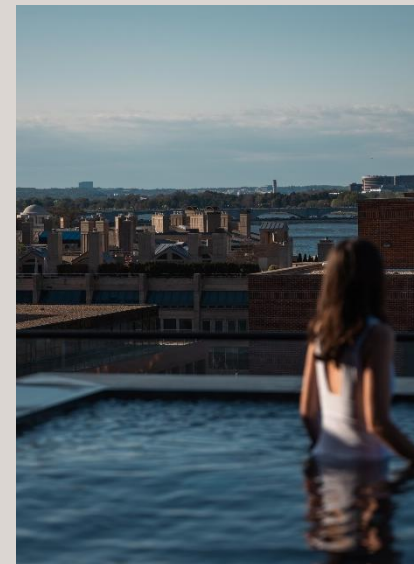

There's nothing quite like savoring elevated bar fare and refreshing cocktails al fresco on a cool, crisp afternoon or evening in the heart of Georgetown.

TOWNHOUSES

The hotel's eight townhouses contribute to the property's overall residential ambiance, allowing guests the balance of privacy with luxury amenities and services from the hotel. These well-appointed rooms fully channel the classic colonial charm of Georgetown.

WELLNESS

Moments dedicated to wellness and rejuvenation provide a welcome change of space.

In-Room Spa Treatments

An array of indulgent spa treatments and services that refresh the mind, rejuvenate the body, and enrich the spirit.

Rooftop Infinity Pool

Take in breathtaking views of Washington, D.C. with elevated, year-round relaxation.

Fitness Center

Bathed in natural light, enjoy state-of-the-art equipment and sweeping Georgetown views while maintaining a fitness regime.

ROSEWOOD WASHINGTON, D.C.

1050 31ST NW ST
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20007

TEL: +1 202 617 2400 | EMAIL: WASHINGTONDC@ROSEWOODHOTELS.COM

ROSEWOODHOTELS.COM/WASHINGTONDC
@ROSEWOODWASHINGTONDC

