A SENSE OF PLACE

LOCAL SELECTIONS FROM CALIFORNIA'S PREMIER WINE REGIONS

We are taking the concept of getting to know a destination to a whole new level. Each chef has his or her favorite vegetable, fish or meat producer and supplier; each sommelier knows his or her beverages. Leaders in the food and beverage division are keenly motivated to building close relationships with local suppliers – relationships built on the exchange of knowledge and mutual dedication to the highest standards. This attitude is carried forward to each and every associate of the team: build a relationship, know your product, and enjoy selling it with the same passion as you would had you produced it yourself. Enjoy your journey... A Sense of Taste, in place at all Rosewood properties worldwide, invites guests to embark on extraordinary culinary journeys that create authentic connections with each locale.

California's Central Coast wine region stretches miles from the Santa Cruz Mountains down through Santa Barbara County. This large region is home to over 100,000 acres of vines and over 40 American Viticulture Areas, including the Santa Cruz Mountains, Monterey, Paso Robles, and Santa Barbara. Each of these American Viticulture Areas specializes in different types and expressions of wine. The unique microclimates, soils, viticulture and viniculture techniques result in a unique terroir, unlike anywhere else in the world. We invite you to join us in enjoying some of the best local producers and regions in California, and truly feel a sense of place.
